

Sexual orientation

depends on which gender(s) a person is attracted to (fancies).

A lesbian is a woman who is attracted to other women.

A gay person is someone who is attracted to people of the same gender as themselves.

A bisexual person is someone who is attracted to men and women.

A pansexual person is someone who is attracted to people of all different gender identities.

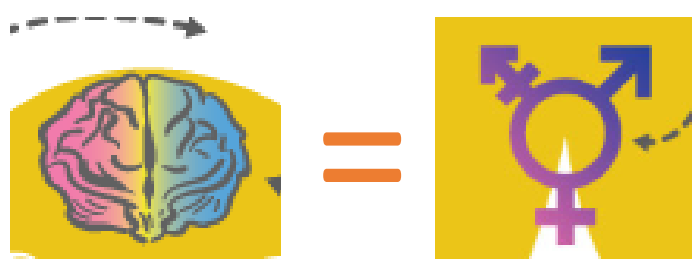

Gender identity is how you feel about your gender.

A transgender person feels a different gender inside to their biological sex.

Someone who is cisgender feels the same gender inside as their biological sex.

A non-binary person is someone who does not identify as simply male or female.

Someone who is intersex is born with both 'male' and 'female' parts.

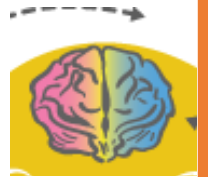

Queer is a term that covers all of LGBT+.

Someone who is asexual has little or no sexual attraction to anyone.

Someone who is questioning is exploring their sexual orientation or gender identity.

Transition is the process by which a transgender person begins to live in the gender they identify with.

Pronouns are words used to replace a person's name, e.g. he, she, they or them.

