Read about the celebrity you have been given, and think about where they identify on the chart below. Draw crosses on the chart to show where you think they will be, like the example. Think carefully about where you think they would place themselves, and remember that this is personal to each of us - so you will probably have to make some guesses! Janelle Monae

Janelle is a singer and actor - she has been in Hidden Figures and Moonlight and has won awards for her albums. She identifies as a cisgender woman, and she wears strong looks including huge, over the top dresses. In the past she was criticised for being 'too masculine', and she talks about this in her songs. She has a girlfriend, and has recently said that the terms 'queer' 'bisexual' and 'pansexual' all feel like they describe her sexuality.
